Pie Corbett's Talk for Writing teaching guide for progression in writing year by year - Updated for 2015-16

originally developed with the South2together Writing Project

Points to note when using this guide:

- In the Punctuation & Terminology columns, any terms in bold are a statutory requirement of the National Curriculum in England.
- Terms highlighted in yellow are technical grammatical terms that will feature in the grammar tests in England from 2016. These are additional to the terms stated in the National Curriculum.
- Please be aware that according to DfE rules, for the purposes of the grammar test, exclamation sentences have to begin with 'What' or 'How'!

Text Structure	Sentence Construction	Word Structure / Language	Grammar, punctuation and vocabulary	Related terminology
Consolidate Year 6 list: Teachers should build on the knowledge and skills that pupils have been taught at key stage 2. Decisions about progression should be based on the security of pupils’ linguistic knowledge, skills and understanding and their readiness to progress to the next stage. Pupils whose linguistic development is more advanced should be challenged through being offered opportunities for increased breadth and depth in reading and writing. Those who are less fluent should consolidate their knowledge, understanding and skills, including through additional practice. Pupils should continue to develop their knowledge of and skills in writing, refining their drafting skills and developing resilience to write at length. They should be taught to write formal and academic essays as well as writing imaginatively. They should be taught to write for a variety of purposes and audiences across a range of contexts. Pupils should be taught to write accurately, fluently, effectively and at length for pleasure and information. They should be able to: write for a wide range of purposes and audiences, including: well-structured formal expository and narrative	Consolidate Year 6 list: - draw on knowledge of literary and rhetorical devices from their reading and listening to enhance the impact of their writing Pupils should continue to plan, draft, edit and proofread through: - considering how their writing reflects the audiences and purposes for which it was intended - amending the vocabulary, grammar and structure of their writing to improve its coherence and overall effectiveness - paying attention to accurate grammar, punctuation and spelling; applying the spelling patterns and rules set out in English appendix 1 to the key stage 1 and 2 programmes of study for English	Consolidate Year 6 list Opportunities for teachers to enhance pupils’ vocabulary will arise naturally from their reading and writing. Teachers should show pupils how to understand the relationships between words, how to understand nuances in meaning, and how to develop their understanding of, and ability to use, figurative language.	The text demands of KS3 require an increasingly wide knowledge of vocabulary and grammar. Pupils should be taught to: - consolidate, extend and apply the grammatical knowledge listed in the next column and understand its use in more challenging texts - consolidate and build on their knowledge of grammar and vocabulary through: - studying the effectiveness and impact of the grammatical features of the texts they read - drawing on new vocabulary and grammatical constructions from their reading and listening, and using these consciously in their writing and speech to achieve particular effects - knowing and understanding the differences between spoken and written language, including differences associated with formal and informal registers, and between standard English and other varieties of English	Consolidate KS2 terminology: Punctuation - Letter/ Word - Sentence - Statement question exclamation Command - Full stops/ Capitals - Question mark - Exclamation mark ‘Speech marks’ - Direct speech Indirect speech - Inverted commas - Bullet points - Apostrophe contractions/ possession - Commas for sentence of 3 – description, action, views/opinions, facts - Colon – instructions - Parenthesis - Bracket- dash - Colon/ semi-colon - Bullet points - Ellipsis - Hyphen Singular/ plural Suffix/ Prefix Word family Consonant/Vowel essays; stories, scripts, poetry and other imaginative writing; notes and polished scripts for talks and presentations and a range of other narrative and non-narrative texts, including arguments, and personal and formal letters • summarise and organise material, and support ideas and arguments with any necessary factual detail • apply their growing knowledge of vocabulary, grammar and text structure to their writing and select the appropriate form			- using standard English confidently in their own writing and speech - discussing reading, writing and spoken language with precise and confident use of linguistic and literary terminology*. Pupils should be taught to control their speaking and writing consciously, understand why sentences are constructed as they are and to use Standard English. They should understand and use age-appropriate vocabulary, including linguistic and literary terminology, for discussing their reading, writing and spoken language. This involves consolidation, practice and discussion of language. It is important that pupils learn the correct grammatical terms in English and that these terms are integrated within teaching.
